Frontline: The Choice 2008 (Documentary, one hour) It is one of the most memorable presidential elections in decades. It is a race that pits the iconoclast John McCain against the newcomer Barack Obama; the heroic former prisoner of war against the first African-American major party nominee. For two hours, the 20th-anniversary broadcast of "The Choice" examines the rich personal and political biographies of these men and goes behind the headlines to discover how they arrived at this moment and what their very different candidacies say about America. (Airdate: October 14 @ 9:00 pm on KCTS 9, HD & KYVE.)

KCTS 9 Connects with Enrique Cerna (Interview/Discussion 30 minutes) Sick of politics as usual in Olympia and Washington, D.C.? Think you could do a better job? Maybe you should run for office. But wait! Is it even possible for a newcomer to run for public office anymore? In this episode of KCTS 9 Connects, we try to find out. Join us as we profile three candidates running for the open seat in the State Legislature's 36th District. The one thing they all have in common: none has ever run for office before. How much time, effort and money does it really take? Can a political novice break through the tyranny of money and the culture of connections that rule politics today? (Airdate: October 17 @ 7:30 pm on KCTS 9, HD & KYVE.)

KCTS 9 Connects with Enrique Cerna (Interview/Discussion 30 minutes) They're young, they're enthused and they're registering to vote. This election cycle is waking up droves of Gen Ys and Millennials to politics. The young vote is an elusive demographic and hard to predict, but this time around it's going to have an impact. Politicians are targeting younger generations through aggressive online campaigning and Web sites including YouTube, MySpace, and Facebook. Suddenly pollsters are predicting that whoever captures these votes will walk away with a victory come November 4. Find out what issues are important to younger generations, and what is suddenly driving them to the polls. Is the Death with Dignity initiative a slippery slope towards coerced suicide? We sat down with two doctors who passionately discuss the issues at hand: Dr. Tom Preston, who hopes to get I-1000 passed in Washington, and Dr. William Toffler, who has been working in Oregon under their equivalent for ten years and thinks it is a very bad move. (Airdate: October 24 @ 7:30 pm on KCTS 9, HD & KYVE.)

KCTS 9 Connects with Enrique Cerna (Interview/Discussion 30 minutes) Pollsters say their forecasts can't anticipate this year's wild card: how racism will play out when people actually step into the voting booth. So even with a clear lead, no one is cashing in the presidential election until after all the votes are cast. Some voters will undoubtedly vote against Obama not because of his stand on the issues, but because of a less tangible objection: an uncomfortable feeling, an indefinable fear or doubt, a queasiness they can't describe. Unfortunately, the pull of racism is still present in the United States today. We talk with PBS and NPR host Tavis Smiley and with local voters about how racism has influenced their opinions. Are we moving beyond race? Are deep-seated prejudices preventing media and society from focusing on more pressing issues? (Airdate: October 31 @ 7:30 pm on KCTS 9, HD & KYVE.)

A KCTS 9 Connects Special: Vote 2008 (Interview/Discussion 30 minutes) On the eve of an historic election, KCTS 9 Connects with Enrique Cerna takes an in-depth look at the presidential race and critical state and local races that will affect Washingtonians. In this live, one-hour report, we will focus on the contentious gubernatorial and 8th Congressional District seat rematches; the proposed transportation plan for the Puget Sound area; and the Death with Dignity Initiative. (Airdate: November 3 @ 7:00 pm on KCTS 9, HD & KYVE.)

KCTS 9 Connects with Enrique Cerna (Interview/Discussion 20 minutes) It was billed as perhaps the most important election of a generation. But now what? In this edition of KCTS 9 Connects, we take an in-depth look at the results of Tuesday's vote. Who won and lost, what passed and failed, and what it really means to you. What's the biggest challenge facing our next governor? How will the new presidential administration impact our state? And how soon can we really expect to see any change? Video Your Vote In this joint project with PBS, we armed local viewers with "Flip" cameras to video their election day experiences and show us what was really going on behind closed voting curtains. (Airdate: November 7 @ 7:30 pm on KCTS 9, HD & KYVE.)

Secrets of the Dead: Doping for Gold (Documentary 1 hour) In the 1970s, female East German athletes came out of nowhere to dominate international sport. But behind their success lay a secret, state-sponsored doping program that distributed untested steroids and male hormones to athletes as young as 12. Many of these girls had no knowledge that they were being doped, and now, as grown women (and men), their broken bodies and damaged psyches bear witness to the cruelty of a government that pursued international glory and gold at the expense of its most acclaimed citizens. "Doping for Gold" digs deep into the secretive Cold War world of East German athletes, examining what drugs were used, how they were distributed and what damage they did to many of the athletes who were forced to take them. The result creates a timely perspective on today's many doping scandals and reveals the truth behind the biggest and most horrifying state-sponsored doping program the world has ever known. (Airdate: October 15 @ 8:00 pm on KCTS 9, HD & KYVE.)

However, investigators have now found that the human remains discovered in Crippen's cellar were not those of his wife. Their further DNA work - revealed exclusively in this film - throws up startling new evidence about what really happened. America at a Crossroads The Trial of Saddam Hussein (Documentary one hour) This program follows the courtroom drama surrounding the trial of Iraq's former president, revealing a tainted procedural that can be seen as a microcosm of the challenges and dysfunctions of forming the Iraqi government itself. The divisions between Iraq's Shia, Sunnis and Kurds throughout the country are represented in the courtroom. The documentary closely examines, for the first time, the full process of trying, convicting and sentencing Saddam Hussein, highlighting the lawyers involved, the multiple judges who presided over the case, the verdict and the sentence - execution.
